

BALI
Ubud bliss

Nestled in the lush Sayan area of Ubud, From Where I Stand is the spot for rocking bold pieces from the Indonesian archipelago. This concept store is a treasure trove with over 30 local brands that blend traditional craftsmanship with a modern twist. Get ready to discover quirky resortwear, accessories, beauty goodies and so much more! @from_where_i_stand_ubud

WORDS: JULIANNE FERREO (IMAGES: NUTU SWOGGA (EXCEPT FOR GLASSES AND FLIP-FLOPS))

Our picks from From Where I Stand

Fashion finds from the Island of the Gods

Kizu shirt
IDR 855.000
Keep cool in this airy button-up by Imaji Studio, made with a dip dye method on biodegradable viscous from Riau, Indonesia.

Bucket hat
IDR 2.495.000
Stay shaded during rice terrace strolls. Reversible, handwoven organic cotton, hand-painted batik, 100% botanical dyes, cut and sewn in Bali by Bodies as Clothing.

Flip-flops
IDR 480.000
Tread through the Island of the Gods' temples with recycled tire soles under your feet – comfy, waterproof, and made locally by Indosole.

Glasses
IDR 3.709.500
Protect your eyes from dust, bugs and the sun with glasses from Indonesian design brand Pawaka.

Ladies bag
IDR 1.950.000
Constructed from 10 upcycled t-shirts, cart around your holiday essentials in this handmade beehive statement piece by Webeings.

Earrings
IDR 990.000
Level up your beach club fit with these gold vermeil Sofia earrings by Wohpe, inspired by the smooth curves of Bali's waves.

